Cairo Claims Reinforced The Situation Shock Troops Is Brighter Beaten Back

BY EDWARD KENNEDY

Cairo, June 30 (AP)—The British situation in Egypt has improved, a United States military observer said today as British headquarters reported blows to the Axis which have reduced enemy striking power and slowed, if not stopped, the invaders' eastward progress at a moment when time is vital to the defenders.

Several developments bolstered this first favorable news since the mechanized Axis Africa corps crashed through Britain's Libyan line and drove beyond the desert frontier of Egypt.

Fresh New Zealand troops and United States airmen and planes have helped rally the battered Eighth Army, which, it is now learned here, has withdrawn to its present positions with utmost efficiency and order.

The American military observer, just back from the fighting front, said "while the situation cannot be classed as good after such reverses as have been suffered in the desert, it certainly is not hopeless and looks better now than a few days ago."

Besides the New Zealanders, it was disclosed, more Free French have joined Britain's ground forces, including fighters from the foreign legion, motorized Spahis (Turn to Page Seven)

BY HENRY C. CASSIDY

Moscow, June 30 (AP)—Soviet forces on the Kursk front above Kharkov have cut off German infantry forces which pierced their lines in several sectors and more than 200 Nazi tanks have been smashed in two days, the army publication Red Star reported today.

The frontline account said that Marshal Timoshenko's defenders closed in quickly behind the wedges driven by the Nazis before supporting tanks could be brought up in this battle which perhaps represents the beginning of Hitler's general offensive up and down the front.

With the enormous tank losses inflicted upon the Germans, Red Star said much of the sting had been drained from the German attack and that Red Defenders hurled back subsequent German attacks.

In the two other violently active battle sectors, Sevastopol's war-weary defenders rallied to beat back reinforced German shock troops to positions from which (Turn to Page Seven)

Protests Gasoline Rationing in Area

Washington, June 30 (AP)—Rep. Harve Tibbitts, (R) of Ebensburg, Pa., has protested to Petroleum Coordinator Harold Ickes against any rationing of gasoline in oil-producing western Pennsylvania.

The area now is excluded from the eastern restrictions, but officials were reported over the weekend to be considering extending the rationing zone westward at least far enough to include rationed counties in western New York, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. "I cannot believe there is any need for rationing gasoline anywhere in western Pennsylvania," the Cambria county representative said. "There appears to be a sufficient amount of fuel stored in our section. There is just as much gasoline stored in western Pennsylvania now as there was a year ago June 1."

CHANGE MADE BY BRITISH IN NORTH AFRICA

Gen. Sir Claude J. E. Auchinleck Takes Over Middle East Replacing Lieut. Gen. Ritchie

CHEERS FOR CHURCHILL

London, June 30 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill announced today that General Sir Claude J. E. Auchinleck, commander in chief of British forces in the Middle East, had taken command of the British Eighth Army in North Africa on June 25, superseding Lieut. Gen. Neil M. Ritchie.

Ritchie had commanded the desert army since last December 11, when he took over from Lieut. Gen. Sir Alan Gordon Cunningham. Churchill, who spoke on his first appearance in the house of commons after his return from the United States, was received tumultuously.

The prime minister, who faces a challenge to his leadership, gave the house no accounting of his conferences with President Roosevelt and only this brief statement of the shift in command of the Eighth Army.

"I do not propose to make any statement today about the momentous battle now being fought in Egypt, but I feel the house would wish to know that on June 25 General Auchinleck decided to assume command of the Eighth Army personally, in succession to General Ritchie."

As soon as Auchinleck informed the government of the decision he had taken he was at once told that it had his approval.

Although that was his only formal statement, Churchill answered questions.

Declining to allow publication of the reports of General Sir Archibald P. Wavell, commander-in-chief in India, on the losses of Malaya and Singapore, the prime minister said they "clearly would cause a great deal of ill-will throughout the British empire."

Auchinleck, who was Wavell's successor in the Middle East, went to the front last November after another big British offensive had bogged down. It was then that Ritchie replaced Cunningham.

"Little Steel" Employees Ask Hike In Wages

Washington, June 30 (AP)—A report made public by the War Labor Board gave strong support today to pleas for a wage increase for 157,000 employees of "Little Steel."

The report of findings by a three-man panel also supported company check-off of union dues and a proposal that union members now employed in the plants be required to keep up their memberships to retain their jobs.

The panel did not specify the amount of increase it believed justified, but said the concerns involved—Bethlehem, Republic and Inland Steel Companies and Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company—were able to pay the $1 a day asked by the CIO United Steel Workers. It also said the buying power of the earnings of the steel workers had decreased about 13.3 per cent since the last general change of wage rates in the industry.

The board will hear arguments at a public session tomorrow before considering a decision.

The Inland company issued a statement contending that the dues check-off and the requirement that union members retain their standing was a form of closed shop and beyond the board's power to impose.

BRITAIN'S HEALTH IS REPORTED GOOD

London, June 30 (AP)—The war has been good for Britain's health, the house of commons was told today by Health Minister Ernest Brown.

As examples, he said the birth-rate of 15.5 for the first quarter of 1942 was the highest since 1931 while the infant mortality rate was 61, lowest on record, and mental diseases have decreased.

Nevertheless, he said, diphtheria killed more children last year than did German bombs.

Convictions in the Field of Sabotage Since Last July Total 177

CONTRABAND IS SEIZED

Washington, June 30 (AP)—The FBI has reported 177 convictions in the field of sabotage and 5,246 complaints investigated in the 10 months beginning last July 1.

Clyde Atolson, assistant director, said some of the cases investigated were "aggravated cases of sabotage" but that up to early June there had been no foreign-inspired sabotage in this country.

He made this statement in hearings on a defense appropriations bill being considered today by the house. His testimony made public yesterday, was given before the FBI announced the seizure of eight submarine-borne German agents last week.

So far, Atolson said, the FBI has arrested 8,844 alien enemies, consisting of 4,611 Japanese, 2,869 Germans and 1,365 Italians. Contraband seized in raids on suspected premises including 631 pistols, 710 rifles, 1,616 shotguns, automatic rifles, and machine guns, 297,994 rounds of ammunition, 1,632 sticks of dynamite, 1,645 short-wave radios, and 956 swords, bayonets, knives and dirks.

To keep in close touch with everyone who might be in a position to help the enemy, the FBI is maintaining a list of all persons who have been arrested or investigated in connection with the war effort. (Turn to Page Seven)

Over Three Million Youths Expected To Register Today

Sinkings Are Raised to 326 Estimated 240,000 Pennsylvania Boys to Sign Up With Uncle Sam

LAW CHANGE SOUGHT

Washington, June 30 (AP)—Three million men of 18, 19 and 20 register for selective service today in the fifth nationwide draft registration, completing the official roster of some 43,000,000 men of 18 to 65.

The 20-year-olds are subject to call for the army. Those who reached the age of 20 by last December 31 were registered on February 16 and many already are in uniform.

Although the 18- and 19-year-olds are not subject to immediate call, the army has indicated it would like congressional authorization to draft them. It is now in the midst of a recruiting campaign directed at men under 20, and war department spokesmen have told congressional committees that in many combat assignments youths of 18 and 19 make the best soldiers. FISCAL YEAR IS COSTLIEST IN HISTORY

Preliminary Tabulation Shows Treasury Has Spent 26 Billion For Direct War Purposes

TAXES SET HIGH MARK

BY IRVING PERIMETER
Washington, June 30 (AP)—Having spent in 12 months more than the entire cost of the first World War, the treasury closed books today on the costliest fiscal year in its history.

It was a temporary record, however, because the budget for the new fiscal year beginning tomorrow is more than double the old year's.

Exact figures won't be available for a few days, but preliminary tabulations showed that in the last year the treasury spent $26,000,000,000 for direct war purposes plus enough more for other governmental activities (some of which were related to the war) to make an expenditure total of approximately $32,500,000,000.

The war figure compared with an official computation that the direct cost of the first World War to the United States, from the peace treaty was ratified in 1921, was $25,729,000,000. Pensions, adjusted compensation, and other items since then would add many more billions to this figure.

The previous one-year spending record (for all purposes) was $18,522,895,000 in the 12 months which ended June 30, 1919—last year's total was more than twice as much as the $12,710,629,823 spent in the preceding year.

But starting tomorrow, the year's bill, as estimated by Budget Director Harold D. Smith, will be $73,000,000,000. (Turn to Page Seven)

PROBING COMMITTEE IN JERSEY REPORTS

Trenton, N. J., June 30 (AP)—The city affairs committee of Jersey City, in an 11-page brief concluding with a sonnet on "The Plunder of the Many By the Few," today urged Governor Charles Edison to remove from office members of the five-man Democratic-controlled Hudson county tax board.

The voluminous brief reiterated charges aired by the committee at recent hearings before Edison and contended again that the board "abdicated to the city of Jersey City its assessment and appellate functions."

HOUSE VOTES AGAIN TO END THE C. C. C.

Washington, June 30 (AP)—The house voted a second time today to end the Civilian Conservation Corps program tonight.

The action came when the members refused, by a roll call vote announced as 229 to 121, to instruct its conferees on a billion dollar labor-federal security bill to agree to a senate decision, approved by Vice President Wallace's tie-breaking vote, to continue the activity into the new fiscal year starting tomorrow with a $76,000,000 appropriation.

Diplomatic Exchange Liner Is Back With Load of Nationals

Sister of Brigadier General Mitchell Brings Advice On How to Win War

SPAIN IS UNSETTLED

Jersey City, N. J., June 30 (AP)—Ruth Mitchell, sister of the late Brigadier General Billy Mitchell who was an early advocate of the use of air power, declared upon her return from Nazi-dominated Europe today that the way to beat Germany is by bombing from airplanes.

The slim, blond-haired woman, who joined the Yugoslav Chetnik guerrilla army in April, 1941 and later spent a year in 12 different concentration camps following her arrest by the German gendarmes, was the first of 949 passengers to disembark on the diplomatic exchange liner Drottningholm.

"Bombing by planes is the way to beat Germany," she told interviewers. "They can't take it."

The passengers included more than 500 American nationals exchanged for Axis citizens. Also aboard were 42 Canadian and Latin-American nationals and a group of minor United States diplomatic officials.

Miss Mitchell, the wife of Stanley Knowles, a British subject, told of spending miserable months in German prison camps during which she said she and others were ill-treated. By contrast she said the Germans fell over backwards to be nice to her during her last five days in Germany at the Spandau concentration camp near Berlin.

She said she was arrested by the gendarmes as she was bathing on a beach at the Adriatic resort port of Dubrovnik in September, 1941.

At that time she had been a chetnik for several months and had taken the chetnik pledge of suicide rather than surrender and carried in the collar of her uniform a vial of poison which she said she still retained.

Many of her friends, she said, were shot in German prison camps, adding that in the Liebenau concentration camp near there were 360 British and 56 American women prisoners.

She brought with her a basket made of string by British women prisoners at Liebenau who she said wished to have it presented to (Turn to Page Seven)

Much Damage Inflicted At Wake Island

Headquarters Hawaiian Air Force, June 30 (AP)—American army bombers, striking at the enemy in probably the longest over-water bombing flight ever made, have dealt new destruction to tiny Wake Island, which the Japanese seized at a high cost last Dec. 23.

Sweeping over the strategic atoll under full moonlight last Saturday night, the bombers hit all their targets, set the main building afire, leveled everything on the surface, and returned to their base without casualties and without the loss of a plane.

Col. Art W. Meehan, pilot of one of the bombers and a former quarterback at West Point, said it "probably was the longest range over-water bombing flight ever achieved." Wake is 2,000 nautical miles west of Pearl Harbor and a (Turn to Page Seven)

Farm Council Scores Lewis

Harrisburg, June 30 (AP)—Charging John L. Lewis "wants power with a capital P," P. C. Turner, president of the Interstate Farmers Council, declared the United Mine Workers head "knows that the man who can control the food supply of a nation can also control its destinies."

In another address before the Pennsylvania Council of Farm Organizations, Roland N. Benjamin of Harrisburg, executive secretary of the Pennsylvania Farm Bureau and a council director, said that if Lewis' plans to unionize the dairymen were successful "Pennsylvania farmers alone would pay over to union coffers under a check-off or two cents a hundred-weight on their milk, a total of more than $800,000 a year."

The Interstate Council was formed with one of its announced purposes being opposition to Lewis "in his attempt to unionize the nation's dairymen." The council is cooperating with farm organizations in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Delaware and Pennsylvania. (Turn to Page Seven)

ARMY SUPPLY BILL READY FOR SIGNING

Senate Passes and Returns To House Measure Providing Appropriation of $42,820,000,000

IS AMENDED SLIGHTLY

WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—With no debate, the house quickly completed legislative action today on a record-breaking $12,800,000,000 war department appropriation bill.

Washington, June 30 (AP)—With only 31 minutes of discussion, the senate passed and returned to the house today a $42,820,000,000 army supply bill, largest appropriations measure ever submitted to congress.

After a one-day delay forced by objections to consideration yesterday, the senate approved the bill with only a minor amendment prohibiting the carrying of advertising by army camp newspapers. The house was expected to agree speedily to this change and send the measure to President Roosevelt.

The senate also adopted today a conference report on a bill appropriating $280,000,000 for the Works Projects Administration during the next fiscal year.

This bill, it is estimated, will take care of 400,000 on the WPA rolls during the next year. It now goes to the White House for the president's approval.

The senate also adopted and sent to the White House legislation appropriating $32,000,000 for war housing in the District of Columbia.

Passage of the record-breaking army supply bill was on a voice vote that appeared unanimous.

The army bill, with appropriations far exceeding the cost of the last war, carried funds for the purchase of 23,550 warplanes and approximately 100,000 tanks. Under its terms the army would be built from its present strength of approximately 2,600,000 men to 4,500,000 men by July 1, 1943.

The senate further approved and sent to the White House compromise legislation appropriating $425,000,000 to maintain the state, justice and commerce departments and the federal judiciary for the fiscal year which begins tomorrow.

A plan for vast federal business subsidies to block a threatened break-through in price ceilings has been recommended to congress. (Turn to Page Seven)

Power Strike Is Called Off

Steuersville, O., June 30 (AP)—A threatened strike of power workers, which would have cut off electricity today at vital war industries in Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia, was called off last night when a wage dispute was certified to the War Labor Board by Secretary of Labor Perkins.

Joseph Logue, field representative of the CIO Utility Workers Committee, charged the U. S. conciliation service with "unnecessary delay of over a month in making the certification," which he said had been requested by both the union and the power companies.

Companies involved in the dispute were the Ohio Power Company at Philo, O., and Power, W. Va., and the West Penn Power Co., at Springdale and Ridgway. The strike had been set for last midnight.

Churchman Has Plan to Keep Hitler Subdued After Peace

Los Angeles, June 30 (AP)—At war's end, "the first thing will be to occupy Germany, Japan and Italy and see that these nations really know who is master," says Dr. Henry A. Atkinson, secretary for the Carnegie-endowed World Alliance for International Friendship Through the Churches.

He came from New York today to address a Win The War To Win The Peace Institute this weekend. "The soldiers who had fought (World War I) became themselves the victims of the victory they had won," Dr. Atkinson told interviewers. This time we can and must avoid that colossal blunder. After the United Nations have shown the Axis who is master, the churchman said, they must "begin to feed the people with law and order, with foodstuffs made available. Then the larger task of reconstruction can be undertaken. "As the enemy nations become stabilized and conditions are such that the people can choose for themselves, they should be given the opportunity to join the United Nations group. "The peace conference should not be held for at least two years after the war. "Political issues at the end of the war will continue to be important. But the major task will be to feed a hungry world x x x."

San Francisco, June 30 (AP)—All Japanese were ordered removed from 20 inland northern California counties today in the first mass evacuation from military area 2. About 1,800 persons are affected.

London, June 30 (AP)—The United States army will absorb 100 of the Americans now in the Canadian army in a mass ceremony tomorrow "somewhere in England." The transfer will be at the men's own request in accordance with a Canadian-American agreement.

Washington, June 30 (AP)—The navy announced today that a medium-sized United States merchant vessel had been torpedoed off the Atlantic coast and that survivors had been landed at an east coast port.

Berlin (From German Broadcasts), June 30 (AP)—A special announcement from Adolf Hitler's headquarters said today that German submarines had sunk 14 merchant ships totalling 98,000 tons in two days in the western Atlantic, the Caribbean Sea and the Gulf of Mexico.

Ponce, Puerto Rico, June 30 (AP)—Soldiers with machine guns and tear gas today broke up a crowd which tried to throw into the sea merchandise stored on a wharf and marked "Made in Japan." (Turn to Page Seven)

Local Scouts
Much EnjoyedEmphasizing preparedness for service and the use of Scouting's skills in emergencies nearly one hundred Scouts of the Warren County Council held their annual Camporee last Friday and Saturday on Yankee Bush. Scouts and leaders alike pronounce the affair one of the most successful held in recent years.Coming into the camping grounds the Scouts prepared themselves and then pitched their tents as if they were to be used by refugees.
Thus the camp was pitched with much more care than usual and made as comfortable as possible.
Each patrol of Scouts in advance had prepared its own menus and equipment lists and had carried all supplies in packs to their camp sites. A feature of the Camporee which had the theme of "Emergency Service" was a "disaster" on Saturday afternoon in which all Scouts took part using their specialized skills.All Scouts and leaders attending qualified for the Camporee awards which were presented in a closing ceremony Saturday evening.
Awards were based upon improvements made while attending the affair.In the closing ceremony Scout Gail Barker, Explorer Scout
Troop 2, of which Paul J. Reynolds is Scoutmaster, was awarded his Eagle badge, the highest honor which a Scout may earn. It was given him with appropriate remarks from his Scoutmaster and his father and pinned on him by his mother, as the assembled Scouts stood at attention and saluted.The entire Camporee program was carried out by a volunteer staff of adult leaders consisting of
H. H. Gustin, Ray Lewis, R. L.
Endress, Carl Jones, and Taylor
Judd with the direction of Bill
Mulvey and Paul Reynolds.

A Killer Defeated

BY PAUL BRAUNSCHEWEIGER of the Mullen Drug Co.

Diphtheria has lost its role as one of the great slayers of mankind, and more specifically of childhood. Immunization has accompanied the fact.

This is due to the splendid campaign of education, to the Schick test and the use of a toxoid which the test proves the patient susceptible. This has been one of medicine's big jobs, a difficult task accomplished in the face of hesitancy to submit to injection of the protective fluid.

All honor to the patient physicians who have carried on the program of education and protection. Do not let this program fail. Diphtheria can still raise its head where immunization is not performed.

Trust medication to a conscientious druggist.

Sales of Bonds and Stamps Through Payroll Allotment Program Is Discussed Here

Representatives of a dozen or more firms and industries, each employing a hundred or more persons, met Friday to discuss the further sale of War Savings Bonds through the Payroll Deduction Plan.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the War Savings Committee of Warren and Forest Counties, R. W. Mackay, chairman, Mr. Mackay first reviewed the work already done since April when the Pledge for Victory Drive opened. Due to the work of over 800 air raid wardens and others nearly every home in the two counties was canvassed. Nearly 7,300 pledges in Warren County realized a sum of $608,903.74, while in Forest County 774 pledges totaled $51,781.78, on a yearly basis.

It was also revealed that more than 50 concerns in Warren are now participating in the payroll allotment plan with more than 4,000 employees making regular systematic purchases of bonds. Warren Borough Schools cooperated to the fullest extent, with sales averaging close to $1,000 per week at the time school closed. All pupils in the Borough and County Schools signed pledges to continue the purchase of stamps during the summer vacation period. The motion picture theatres began the sale of stamps on June 15th and have been making substantial sales since then. On July 1st the merchants of the county will begin a nation wide effort to further stimulate the sale of bonds and stamps. They will devote an initial 15 minute period that day for the exclusive promotion of bonds and stamps. The sale will continue through the month of July with a goal of 4% of gross business.

May sales of Bonds and Stamps for the County reached $201,000, with a quota of $116,700. This is an increase of 72% above quota for the month. Final figures on June sales are not yet known but they will probably fall somewhat behind the increased quota of $158,400. This follows the trend through out the country for the month of June where sales have not been up to expectations.

Firms having representatives at the meeting Friday were: Bradford Penn Refining Co.; DeLuxe Metal Furniture Co.; New Process Co.; Pennsylvania Bottle Co.; Pennsylvania Furnace and Iron Co.; National Forge and Ordnance Co.; Pennsylvania Gas Company; and Phenix Furniture Company.

Other firms who have adopted the Payroll Allotment plan and who will participate in the effort were: Hammond Iron Works; Youngsville Star Manufacturing Co.; Struthers Wells-Titusville Corporation and United Refining Company.

Model Plane Being Sought Near Akeley

A search is being made in the vicinity of Akeley for a large model airplane which was lost following an unusual flight on Sunday. The model plane, owned by Don Connelly, of 24 Oak street, is orange and black and has a 6 1/2-foot wing spread. It is powered by a miniature engine.

The plane was started from the State Hospital grounds at North Warren about 4:15 p. m. Sunday, but the motor only ran for about ten seconds. However, the rising heat waves kept the plane aloft and it started drifting northward.

The owner of the plane followed it as far as Akeley and near there it started descending. However, a search has failed to reveal where it landed.

The youth estimates that the plane at times reached an altitude of approximately 3,000 feet, going above the clouds.

He has asked that anyone finding the plane return it to him here. He is offering a reward for the return of the model.

Retailers To Boost Sales Of War Bonds

American retail stores have enlisted to "spark" the Billion Dollar United States Treasury War Bond and Stamp Campaign for the month of July.

The government has requested that every store in America stop selling merchandise and sell only War Savings Bonds and Stamps from 12 to 12:15 o'clock on Wednesday, July 1st. From all over the nation retailers have signified their intention to take part in this dramatic quarter-hour pause, the pause to produce bond and stamp sales.

In Warren a "Retailers For Victory" committee, of which H. B. Pettit is chairman, was appointed by the Retail Merchandising Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. In order to stimulate in-

Many at Outing of Clarendon Friends Held Over Week-end

About one hundred Old Clarendon residents, relatives and friends attended the tenth annual picnic held Saturday at Wildcat Park, Ludlow. During the business session the following officers were re-elected: President, Charles Berry, of Warren; secretary, Mrs. Mary Campbell, of Clarendon; treasurer, Mrs. Lou Keenan, of R. D. 1, Clarendon.

Rev. Jesse Knapp, pastor of the Clarendon Methodist church, gave a short talk. Music was furnished by Bob and Jean Trummer, of Warren.

Prizes were awarded to the following: Mrs. Carrie Armagost, Frank Kelly and Heath Hammore, of Buffalo, N. Y.

The meeting closed with the benediction by the Rev. Byron Berry of Fort Allegany.

One day on the planet Mercury is equal to about seven days on our earth.

Interest on the part of every sales person in Warren stores, it was decided to offer the following prizes:

First prize—$50.00 War Savings Bond.

Second prize—$25.00 War Savings Bond.

Third prize—$10.00 worth of War Savings Stamps.

Fourth prize—$5.00 worth of War Savings Stamps.

The money with which to purchase these prizes was raised through the very successful Victory rummage sale held last Friday and Saturday.

Every store is requested to keep a record of its salesperson's sales and report them to the Chamber of Commerce, where they will be tabulated each week. No limitation is to be placed upon when and where they sell their bonds and stamps. The committee has not had time to personally contact all the retailers of Warren, so through the columns of the Times-Mirror is now requesting a 100% compliance with the government's request regarding the 15-minute sales period Wednesday, July 1st. Each store is responsible for securing its own supply of Stamps and Bond application blanks from the post office or one of the banks.

Massed Band Concert Has Big Audience

A large and very enthusiastic audience gathered on the lawn of Beatty school last evening to enjoy the massed band concert presented under the capable direction of Harry A. Summers.

Bleachers on three sides of the quadrangle, erected by the School Music Boosters' Club, provided adequate seating facilities for those assembled to hear the well-balanced and excellently-laid program of familiar band compositions.

The featured soloist, Raymond Marti, was particularly well received in his trombone selection.

The committee on arrangements expressed its thanks and appreciation today for the cooperation and support of the public and made known the fact that next Monday evening interested committee members and band directors will meet to form a permanent organization to carry on this work as a community music group.

It is planned to continue the band concerts regularly and arrangements are going ahead satisfactorily for a Sunday evening concert, on July 12, featuring a local symphony orchestra of between 50 and 75 pieces; also a choir of about the same number of voices under the direction of Carroll A. Fowler, vocal music director in the borough schools. In addition, the audience will be invited and encouraged to join in the singing of good, old-fashioned hymns.

The Warren County Ministerial Association is lending its support to this music project and all ministers have been asked to make announcement of the sacred concert in their churches.

No tickets will be sold for either band or symphony concerts, but a silver offering will be asked to help defray expenses of orchestration and such items.

DAYLIGHT AHEAD

For the first time since the United States began its made race to arm the anti-Axis world before Hitler could blitz democracy out of existence, we begin to see daylight ahead in the steel situation.

So far as it is possible to determine, pressure upon steel is beginning to lessen. Unless we are obliged once again to increase our production goals, soon the world's greatest and most efficient metal industry should prove ample for our needs.

Ample, that is, for our military needs, which today are all that really matter. There is not going to be any steel to waste. There is not going to be enough steel for ordinary civilian goods, even if the plant and the manpower were available to use it.

Industrial and government experts say our ingot capacity—the plant with which to make raw steel in its elementary form—is sufficient.

When the conversion of automobile continuous strip mills is completed, by the end of 1942, the bottleneck in steel plate probably will be broken.

With the completion of the world's greatest rush building program, and in view of the shutdown in non-essential civilian construction, the bottleneck in structural shapes should disappear.

The principal fly in the ointment today, looking ahead to tomorrow, is whether even a three-ship-a-day maritime program will suffice to overcome sinkings and build up the merchant marine and transport service we must have to beat Hitler.

If sinkings continue at their present pace, we may have to shoot for a yet higher level of ship construction. Then, indeed, we might find a new bottleneck in steel plate.

Without letting optimism run riot, we believe the sinkings are going to be brought under control to such an extent that three ships a day, seven days a week, will do the job.

That confidence looks forward not only to improved naval technique, which insiders profess to see working out, but also to the building of hordes of small anti-submarine craft capable of overwhelming the decreasing number of U-boats the axis can produce and man and send into shipping lanes.

The steel industry undoubtedly has made mistakes. So have governmental agencies dealing with steel. But considering the monumental task and the pressure under which it had to be accomplished, we believe that both are entitled to sincere commendation.

Fine bunch of Warren county lads signing up with Uncle Sam today. Most of the enrollees are not subject to military service under the present law, but the 20-year-olds may be called. It has also been announced that there will be no lottery to determine the classification of the new eligibles. Local draft boards will simply classify them by the dates of birth, the oldest to be called first.

A delightful musical treat was enjoyed by a large and enthusiastic crowd which turned out for the program played by massed bands on the Beaty school lawn last evening. Director Harry Summers and all the musicians deserve high praise for the fine entertainment provided.

Most of those 91 men who left Warren for final physical examinations this morning will be going through again this evening on their way to an induction center. Better be on hand to join in the farewell that will be given them. Goodbye, boys! The best of luck!

It was apparent today that a few hundred automobiles will be missing from the streets in Warren tomorrow because of the fact that owners have not secured the new car stamps. Better have one on the windshield if you intend to drive after midnight tonight.

Maybe it's a military secret, but we're just a little curious to know what became of the thundershowers predicted for yesterday afternoon and last evening!

Doesn't seem possible that six months from tonight will be New Year's eve!

Save Now to Avoid That Two-Front Problem

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — The capital hasn't lost its sense of humor. There is, for example, the story of Leonard Herman, Department of Agriculture clerk, who for two years has been the cause for a lot of leg-pulling among the agriculture experts.

Every year, the department employs get up a pool on the wheat referendum vote; each employee who participates chipping in for the privilege of guessing what percentage of the farmer votes will be for continuation of the wheat control program.

Last year, young Herman walked off with the pot and this year, duplicated his 1941 feat, making him in all some $40 richer. The reason for the ribbing of the experts is that Leonard Herman is Brooklyn lad, born and reared in Dodger town, and by his own admission wouldn't know a wheatfield from a Louisiana cane-brake. It's just that to any one who has spent his youth trying to figure out what the Brooklyn Dodgers are going to do next, figuring out what the farmers are going to do is as elementary as two times two.

ONE of the better yarns circulated is that which Rep. Luther Patrick, the Alabama who was defeated for reelection tells on himself. Explaining that while other congressmen like to relax by fishing, hunting or playing golf, he enjoys most, going over to one of the radio stations and doing a little broadcasting. And that's how come that Patrick told the yarn that he'd been on the radio.

"I had gone to the broadcasting station one afternoon just after the house had adjourned for the day, I had what I thought was a very funny little story. I said:

"Ladies and gentlemen, we passed some kind of an appropriation bill up there a while ago. I voted for it. You know how it is with congressmen, we vote a bill out today and then buy a paper tomorrow to see what it was, and maybe vote it back in again."

"I thought that was a pretty clever joke. But they had a record of that broadcast down in my district and they played it all over the district and on the radio until I had nightmares about it. It sure wasn't funny then."

I TOOK a young War Production Board attorney to prove to his elders that the WPB is bound around with far too much red tape.

The young lawyer, disgusted at the number of officials who have to approve every memorandum issued by the office and doubting if many of them read all the paragraphs they initiated as okay, decided to test his theory. Into the middle of a long memo on cotton duck cloth, he wrote a paragraph about Donald Duck. Fourteen officials initiated the memorandum as okay before the fifteenth detected the presence of the irritable Donald D.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK — The sporting goods store around New York are making the most of the ban on shipping and the subsequent dim-out of sea travel for summer vacations.

Why not buy a canoe, they urge, and do a Henry Hudson by following the old Hudson to its source? Buy yourself a row-boat with an outboard motor, which comes under no gas rationing head, and explore the inland waterways of the east.

You walk along Chambers street and the big tackle stores make a point of reaching for the man who, as a rule, takes his fun in foreign travel. "Get hep to America," they say. "Get yourself a gun and go fishing. Get yourself a gun and go shooting."

I think maybe they've got something. If I had the time I'd like to get into a canoe and float down the Mississippi to the gulf. I'd like to take the Hudson to its source, I'd like to take the inland waterway and go to Chesapeake, with just a companion, and a fishing rod, and sleep out nights.

There are points within 45 minutes of Broadway so wild and dense that you would think you were in a different part of the country. It's deer and fox country. There are sea-marshes that are unsafe to explore, because of their quicksand bottoms. There are mountain trails and streams that are fed by cold, natural springs. All within a few minutes of Times Square. Not too many people know of these places, so perhaps the sporting goods people are doing a public service by calling attention to them.

JANE FROMAN gives indoor picnics, now that she has garaged her car. The sandwiches and boiled eggs are served on the front room floor. They pretend it's a picnic grove, or Coney Island.

Nice to see Sammy Kaye again. The Swing and Sway kid is at the Essex House, and a nice band he has too. It would be hard to choose music more pleasant to dance to, or to dine through, or to meditate by.

Frazier Hunt, the commentator and writer, is making a survey of war work in American cities from coast to coast. James Carlton has contributed three radio dramas (on the war) gratis, to service programs. More attendants should be stationed in that big Chambers street subway station. You can wander around for days without finding the train you need.

GAG: Seems Father John Boland, Chairman of the N. Y. State Labor Relations Board, paid a compliment to a film producer recently by lauding his patriotism in donating to the Red Cross Blood Bank.

But after the good Padre left a wisecrack spoke up and said, "Why laud that guy? He only gave a fifth. Everybody else gave a pint."

Looky! Looky! A Sugarless Cookie!

PASS up the sugar bowl and heat up the oven, for you don't need that precious sweet stuff to make the brand new sugarless cookies that have been created, tried and tested in the Rumford Kitchens.

They're sure and simple, and since sugar tends to mask ingredient flavors, Rumford being an all-ophosphate baking powder leaves no after taste in sugarless recipes. Here is the basic recipe and its four flavorful variations:

Sugarless Cookies
2 1/2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons Rum-ford Baking Powder
1/4 teaspoon salt

4 cups shortening
1 1/2 cups honey
1 egg, well beaten
1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla

Sift together flour, Rumford Baking Powder and salt. Cream shortening, add honey slowly and cream until fluffy. Stir in well-beaten egg and vanilla. Add sifted dry ingredients, a little at a time, blending well after each addition. Drop by teaspoonfuls on lightly greased cookie sheet and bake in a moderately hot oven (425° F.) for 12 to 15 minutes. Yield: about 4 dozen cookies.

VARIATIONS
Chocolate Drop Cookies: Add 1/4 cup grated semi-sweet chocolate to creamed shortening mixture before adding sifted dry ingredients.
Nut Drop Cookies: Add 1/2 cup chopped nut meats to creamed shortening mixture before adding sifted dry ingredients.
Orange Drop Cookies: Add 2 teaspoons grated orange rind and 1/4 teaspoon orange flavoring to cookie batter in place of vanilla.
Fruit Drop Cookies: Add 1/4 cup raisins, chopped figs or prunes to creamed shortening mixture before adding sifted dry ingredients.

Eagles Win 6-4, Leave Hospital in Sunset Loop Cellar

Swansonmen Halted by Fine Relief Hurling by Pollock; Dodgers Commit Seven Errors

When Stoneham whipped them a couple of weeks ago, it was said to be an upset, but last night's triumph by the Eagles over the Flock poured it on as Jimmie made his first Sunset League start, and pitched for the first time since he was injured five weeks ago in a game with the Flock at North Warren.

The Eagles rapped Rose for nine runs and played seven Hospital errors for six runs while holding the well-beaten opponents to five safe-keeping and four scores over the nine-inning route.

The Eagles were intent upon making a ball game of it. They committed but one error, and the fans a fast infield double play, but the Swansonmen's seven misuses threw the contest into havoc and spelled defeat, sending them to the cellar berth in the league, a spot from which they can't remove themselves in the first half.

Two runs on two hits and an error in the first inning, two runs on two hits and an error in the second, and two runs on one hit and two errors in the fourth accounted for the six Eagle runs, and after three runs on two hits in the last two innings off Bob Baker, the Hospital was kept silent until they finally touched "Sparky" Pollock, who tossed six innings of ball in the eighth for their fourth run.

The victory boosted the Eagles to a second place tie with Stoneham with one game, against the Flock Friday evening, between them and the finish line of the first half. An upset at this point would assure the Eagles at least a second place tie in the circuit, and Stoneham would be forced to slip the Hospital come Thursday night to bring this about.

The loop is silent tonight and tomorrow but resumes action when the Hospital and Stoneham go to bat Thursday, the next to last game on the first half program.

This evening the Swansonmen play a non-league game in Corry and another tomorrow night on their home grounds against the Jamestown Monarchs, weather permitting.

Notes: Doubles by Bob Sedon and Bob Baker featured the Eagles triumph. The Hospital showed a complete reversal of form from their fine exhibition against the Forge last Friday night. They'll never get far, however, until the fielding department does a little plugging of some really big holes. Humorous incident last night was the

STATE OPEN TOURNAMENT WON BY BYRD

Pittsburgh, June 30.—(P)—Sam Byrd, the former New York Yankee outfielder who hails from the Lower Merion Cricket Club in Philadelphia, is the new Pennsylvania Open golf champion by virtue of the 10-under par 132 he fired at 70 odd professionals and amateurs yesterday.

Playing on the Shannopin Country Club course, Byrd carded an afternoon 64 to lower the course competitive record one stroke. His morning round of 68 had him one stroke back of the half-way leader, Dick Shoemaker of Chartiers Heights, who wound up in third place as he fell off to a 73 for a 140 total.

Henry Ransom of Philadelphia, put together 71 and 68 for second place and $100 while Byrd was pulling down $250 and Shoemaker $150.

Byrd was hotter than one of Pittsburgh's blast furnaces. He left the field so far behind him he didn't wait for more than 20 of the cards to be posted before leaving to take up his pro duties at the Lower Merion club. The former baseballer's iron play was so superlative he didn't need any 28 putts to score 10 birdies and 28 pars. He seemed to get better as he went along, chalking up three birdies on his last five holes.

Top amateur honors were taken by Steve Kovach, of Tarentum. In carding the low amateur rounds Kovach had identical 71s to tie for fourth place with Morris Gravatt of Sunnyside and Ray Mangrum of Oakmont. Gravatt had 72 and 70 for his 142 and Mangrum posted 73 and 69.

BANK SHOTS

BY FLOYD PASSINGER, Sports Editor

Since the 1942 Sunset Baseball League got under way, the first hardball this community has enjoyed in three seasons, several youngsters have popped up with remarkable natural ability and only experience and the necessary teaching needed to turn them into finished ball players—this is the reason your agent was eager that the league should get new life this year in the first place. And while the Forge, a group of veteran stars from which we wish to take no glory, ran away with the first half, the objective or goal for which we were pointing is being attained, that of giving these kids the chance they have asked for, and possibly starting them along on the road that will lead to scaling the heights in baseball as a career. So, when you stroll out Russell Field way to watch this year's Sunset circuit, we're asking every fan not to compare it with those in the past. Teams may be beaten by merciless scores, and then again they may provide the best contest you could ever hope to see—for fifteen cents or for 15 bucks. Just remember, however, that they aren't big leaguers, and also the fact that even the big show has its floppers. Regardless, this Sunset League of 1942 is a school as well as a source of entertainment. Each time a player commits an error he learns, though it may cost many a ball game. And a good player won't make the same mistake twice. By next season, if Uncle Sam doesn't have us all on his Victory team by then, these boys now showing the colors for Stoneham and the Eagles in particular, are going to amaze you with the strength they will then own, if the same boys stay together on the same teams. Exercise your patience while watching these games, give the kids credit where it's due, and overlook some of the rough spots which have yet to be ironed out, and everyone can get more out of the baseball season this summer. This corner has never seen the fan who wouldn't go along with a same request, and we're counting on you to co-operate this time again.

An additional note on the above little treatise: This is not an apology for the games already played in the Sunset League, because this writer doesn't feel for the general brand of ball seen to date that any apologizing is necessary. There have been a couple of bad games, but on the other hand there have been several extremely good games. Baseball is baseball no matter who plays it if they have a general knowledge of the game, and kids who love it will put up better scraps often times than vets who play it for their paycheck. Sammy Byrd was leading the Pennsylvania Open Tourney at the three-quarter mark yesterday with a total of 106 over 27 holes. He stood a good chance today of winning his second first class event, having captured the Greensboro Open earlier this year. Add golfing news: Entries are being received from all parts of the state for the eighth annual Pennsylvania Public Golfers' Association championship tournament which will be held on the Hershey Park Golf Club course July 17-18. Last year a record entry list of 140 linkmen was realized, and promoters expect an even larger turnout this year. Thad Lawson reports, in answer to our query as to when the Arcade Recreation alleys would close down for the summer, that his slides will remain open until after the Fourth of July. Probably until July 29th, when he expects mechanics who are coming to prepare the public house for the coming season. Softballers meet this evening in the T-M editorial room.

Jameson Monarchs And Hospital Battle

Rained out last week when they were first scheduled to play on the North Warren diamond, the Jamestown Monarchs invade the institution tomorrow evening for a twilight encounter with Rabbit Swanson's boys slated to begin at 6:15 o'clock.

The Monarchs, highly-rated colored combination, boast a string of victories this season and have compiled an attractive record to date. They have power at the plate and a good defensive ball club, cool and steady, enough to make them a match for almost any ball club. This evening the Hospital club goes to Corry for a game scheduled to begin at 7:30 o'clock and Thursday night will play their second Sunset League contest of the week, against Stoneham, on Russell Field at 6:15 o'clock.

Durocher, Suspended Until Thursday, Watches Dodgers Extend Lead; Tribe in Win

BY HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Leo Durocher, chief of the Babbling Brooks, earned the nickname of the All-American Out during his sojourn as a player in the American League but he is just plain "out" as boss of the Dodgers until Thursday.

The Brooklyn mouthpiece, who never says in 10 games what he can say as easily in 1,000, has been fined $50 and suspended for three days by President Ford Frick of the National League for his run-in with the umpires Sunday.

But he was within whispering distance at Philadelphia last night as the Brooklyn posted another half game to their National League lead in one of the day's two major league games.

Seated only 10 feet from the Dodger bench in a box, he squirmed loudly until his charges came through with a six-run outburst in the ninth inning to quell the Philadelphia Phils before 8,066 Quakerites, 10 to 3.

In that frame the Dodgers battled all the way around to make sure that Ed Head, their rookie hurler, was successful in his fifth attempt to win his sixth game of the season. Joe Medwick, who had slacked his batting pace considerably in the past week, warmed up again with three singles in six at-bats.

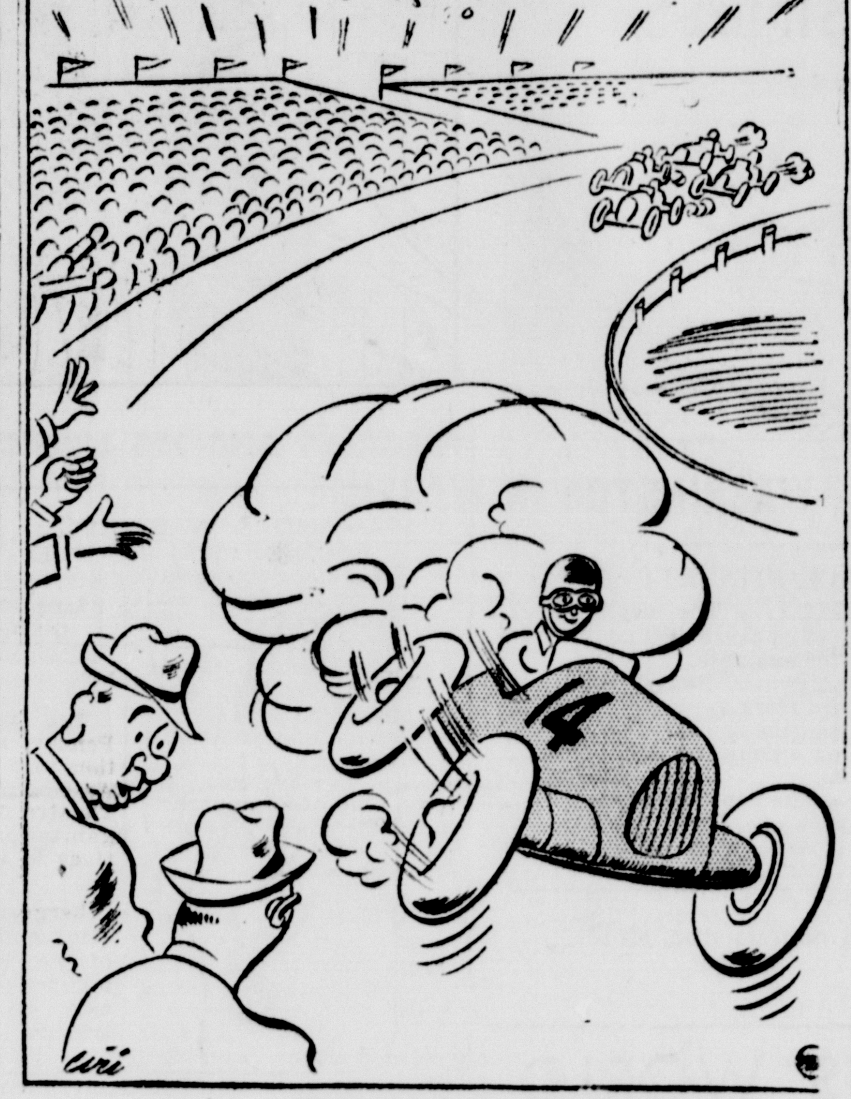

The triumph lifted the Dodgers nine and a half games ahead of the idle St. Louis Cardinals.

Action was every bit as concentrated in the American League where the Cleveland Indians retained third place by shellingacking the Chicago White Sox, 11 to 5.

The Indians collected 17 hits off Lee Ross, Joe Haynes and Pete Appleton while Al Milnar, touched for nine hits and five runs in the first five frames, hurled perfect ball in the final four frames.

His young battery mate, Jim Hegan, swatted four singles in four tries.

AROUND NEW YORK

By GEORGE TUCKER
NEW YORK—The Johns get busy:
John Anderson, the Journal-American drama critic, is writing a biography of Billy Rose.
John Gunther, author of "Inside Europe," "Inside Asia," and "Inside Latin America," is working for the Signal Corps. He's traveling around to the various camps, writing film scenarios.
Johnny Long, the orchestra leader, is playing the Ice Show in the Terrace Room at the Hotel New Yorker. An announcement this morning said at least six of his players would become papas within six months.

JOHN CAIRNS, the advertising executive, tells me the War Dept. has just approved a new material for Army officers' uniforms. It's made entirely of spun rayon and is called Rivercool Tropical.
John Boles, the actor, is starring in a new opera film.
John Edgar Hoover, chief of the G-men, has a much longer title than you suppose. At the moment he's in Washington, and his full title is Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the United States Department of Justice.
And that's about all, except of course, Johnny Doughboy, who's in Ireland. According to the reports from Tin Pan Alley, they say he's found himself a rose....

MRS. MURDOCK TAKES A CASE

Chapter Nine
Bad News
SOMETHING ran swiftly along Joyce's nerves and left them cold and tingling. She put her hand on Delia's, and said, quickly: "But what did you do?"

"I jumped up and spilled my drink. I certainly didn't want to be found alone with Perry Clarke. He must have been a little upset too. He hurried me into a hall."

"You can wait here if you like," he said. I told him that I'd come back. Just then the knocking started again, and so he said there was a door in the kitchen stairs. "And be sure you make it quiet," he said.

Delia pressed Joyce's hand. "He went back to the living room and closed the door. I stood there a moment—the hall was lighted—and noticed that there were two rooms opposite each other. One was a bedroom."

"Delia!" Joyce caught her breath. "You didn't—"

"I did," Delia said. "The moment I thought of it I knew I'd do it. I was stiff with fright and yet I couldn't help it. No one could hear me, and something told me I'd have time. Well, there were two bags in the closet and the first one I opened held two envelopes. One was thick and bulky and I opened the flap. It was filled with money—or bonds or stock of some kind—and lots of it. . . . Well, I knew that was a good thing. I wanted so I put it back and picked up the other one. When I saw what was in it, I took it."

Joyce leaped back, unable to summon any further capacity for surprise.

"All right," she said. "What was in it?"

"Wait until I tell you the rest," Delia said. "I went back in the hall—I could hear voices but I couldn't hear what was said—and tiptoed through the kitchen and out the back door. I was actually shaking I was so excited, and I kept stumbling and feeling my way along in the darkness. Finally I got outside, but it was just as dark there, although I could see a street light at the end of the alley. I hurried back to the corner and started across the street in front of the apartment house where I'd parked. And then, just before I'd reached my car, I saw Ward's coupe. It was three or four cars behind me and I wasn't positive at first so I stepped out in the street and walked up to it and made sure."

What To Do?
SOMEWHERE down on the street, Joyce heard a car door slam, the sound of a motor in rapid acceleration; then everything was quiet again except the pounding of her heart. Aware at last that Delia was waiting for her reaction, she made the necessary adjustments and found her voice.

"It was Ward then who knocked?"

"It must have been," Delia said. "That's why I came straight here. At first I was going to wait for him and then I decided I'd better not. Perry Clarke is bound to know what happened to the envelope. I suppose he could have me arrested if he wanted to, couldn't he? After all, I did steal it."

"What about Ward?" Joyce asked.

"How do you mean?" Delia said. "I'll be all right. I don't think he'll go to the police. He probably went up there to get the envelope, and now it's safe and can't hurt him. Either he'll find out it's been stolen or he won't and in any case—"

"He hesitated, the excitement dying in her."

"Only—I don't know what to do about it. Will you keep it for me, in case the police do come?"

"I don't imagine they will," Joyce said. "Perhaps we'd better look at it."

Delia went to her coat and produced the envelope. Joyce took out four pieces of paper. Two of them were newspaper clippings printed in Spanish, one of them a two column story with a picture of Ward near the top. The other two, she saw at once, had nothing to do with Ward, but concerned Perry Clarke. The first was the photostatic copy of a marriage certificate, a French document dated in November 1937 and stating that Hestor and Perry Clarke had been married in Paris; the second was a copy of a divorce, also issued in Paris, and bearing the date of August 1938.

"I guess what I did was pretty awful," Delia said.

"Mad is the word," Joyce said. "and even that's an understatement." She gave her attention to the clippings. "Can you read Spanish?"

"Some."

"Do you know what these say?"

"Well—not really. I saw Ward's picture—and the headline. I'm not sure I want to know. I mean"—she paused, eyes anxious and disturbed—"do you think I should, Joyce? Oh, I don't know what to do."

The Call
JOYCE realized what she meant. She had a smattering of Spanish, enough to know that the headline of one clipping said something about an American being arrested in a jewel theft, that the other announced Ward Allen had been released in $2500 bail.

"Should I just seal the envelope and mail it to Ward?" Delia said. "And not let him know where it came from? Or should I tell him everything and let him know it doesn't matter to me?"

Joyce had been reading as the girl spoke, and from what she could gather from her sketchy translation it seemed that Ward had been the guest of a Countess de Ferani at a small party, which had lasted most of the night, accompanied by much drinking. Upon awakening later in the day the Countess had discovered the loss of a pearl necklace and a valuable bracelet which had been found subsequently in Ward Allen's rooms. . . .

She looked at Delia, wondering how much the girl knew. It was just what she should advise her. She was saved from making a decision by the ringing of the telephone, and returned the papers to the envelope before she answered.

"It was Kent," she said.

"You in bed?" he asked. She told him no and he said: "Well, don't wait up for me. I may be very late."

"Oh," Joyce said. "All right, dear. Something special?"

"Murder. I ran into it on my way home. There was a moment of silence. 'Maybe I should tell you, it's Perry Clarke.'" Something cold stabbed at Joyce and her throat froze. She looked at Delia. The girl was watching her and slipping into her coat, her smile mildly curious. Joyce turned away, sick with horror and dismay, the growing silence piling up on her in heavy, stifling layers.

"Hey," Kent's voice said. "You there?"

"Yes," she found her voice and strove to discipline it. "You mean he—"

"Shot twice," Kent said. "And not so very long ago. I'll tell you all when I see you. Bye."

Joyce hung up slowly, summoning every resource so that she might face Delia calmly.

New Addition To Church At Youngsville

Youngsville, June 29—A splendid addition is being made to the Saron Lutheran church. A small furnace room was all that had been excavated beneath the church. Now they have decided to put a basement under the entire church with a new grade entrance. This will make room for a dining room, kitchen and two rest rooms. The dining room will also be used for Sunday school classes. The first thing that is now being done is to make a new furnace room and install the furnace in this space. The Men's Brotherhood of the church is volunteering much of the labor.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL.
The program from the Community Vacation Bible school was held in the Methodist church on Friday evening. It was in charge of the dean of the school, Rev. C. M. McIntyre, and showed the faithful work of the corps of more than 16 volunteer teachers. All the Scripture and songs given were memorized. The hand work which was on display was well done. The boys' work was under the direction of Rev. Samuel Stimer, while that of the girls was by their different teachers.

FAREWELL PARTY
Many friends of Miss Betty Horner were in attendance at the farewell party held for her on Thursday evening at the home of Miss Elmore Sweetland. Miss Horner is attending Edinboro summer school. She was president of this year's senior class and was presented the Balfour award for achievement in scholarship during her high school course. Her friends wished her the same success in her college work. The evening was spent in games, closing with a handkerchief shower for Miss Horner.

GIVE SHOWER
A shower for Mrs. Lornie Halfast was given Friday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. C. Pollard, assisted by Mrs. William Sandburg. An enjoyable evening was had by all. Mrs. Halfast received many lovely gifts for the new arrival. Last week another shower was given Mrs. Halfast by her bridge club at the home of Mrs. Jane Barton.

LOCALS
Mrs. Mark Shurwin and daughter, Miss Mary Ann, of Putnam, Texas, surprised Mrs. Shurwin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Johnson, with a visit.
Mrs. Ida McMillan's sister, Mrs. Emma Green, who has been wintering in the south, arrived at her home just in time to attend her sister-in-law's funeral, Mrs. Belle Shortt, at Sugar Grove, held Friday afternoon. There were many from Youngsville in attendance at this funeral.
Ted Husted went to Chautauqua Sunday, where he will work for the season with the Chautauqua Lumber Company and Garage. Roger Burrows also went up to Chautauqua where he will spend a few days with his sister, Miss Ann Burrows.

Mrs. Frank Bauer, Mrs. Carl Mourer, Mrs. Warren Jones, Mrs. Arthur Streeter, Mrs. Glenn Patch and Mrs. James Lucas were in attendance at the dinner and meeting of the Fair yithuaghomexing of the Intercounty County Council of the American Legion held in the Legion rooms at Warren on Saturday, June 27. Mrs. Alice Streeter was elected a director.
Mrs. C. C. Johnson led an interesting meeting of the W.C.T.U. on Friday at the Husted home. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Guiney Ball. Because of rain the picnic supper was served on the porch. The July meeting will also be a picnic. It will be at the cottage of Mrs. Lee Rogers at Allegheny Springs on July 17th. Election of officers will be held at this time.

New Veterans Organization Being Formed

Official authorization from national headquarters of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States has been received by Geo. H. Schweitzer, department deputy chief of staff, for the institution of a new post at Titusville, it was learned here today.
The new post will be known as the Elva Bruce Post, No. 897, in memory of a Titusville soldier who was killed in action in World War I during the battle of the Meuse-Argonne Forest.
The "muster in" will be held in the city hall at Titusville on July 4 at 10 a. m. in the presence of national, state and county council officers. Two veterans' musical organizations already have signified their intention of being present for the occasion, it was stated.
The city of Titusville is sponsoring a celebration and a large parade will open the program at one o'clock.
This new organization is the third veterans' unit formed through the efforts of Mr. Schweitzer, the others being Marshall Larsen Post, V. F. W., of Clarendon, and Bucktail Chapter, Military Order of the Purple Heart.

One-third of Canada's population is French-Canadian.

Reinforced Shock
Troops Beaten Back

they launched a 48-hour assault and on the Kharkov front heavy but indecisive fighting still raged.

In savage hand-to-hand fighting 3,000 Germans were killed by Soviet troops defending two sectors, the official Tass Agency reported.

The battle of Sevastopol had appeared near a bloody climax, for the Soviet information bureau announced last night that, at a heavy cost, the Germans made fresh gains.

A noon communique, however, reported that, having lost more than 1,500 men in attempts to breach the defenses, "the Hitlerites retreated into their initial positions."

(The German high command reported their forces had penetrated the inner defensive ring of Sevastopol. The penetration was made to the east of the town by forces which attacked from the north and crossed Sevastopol bay. "In the face of stubborn enemy resistance," a communique said.

"This was the second report of major progress against Sevastopol's rugged defenses in two days, and German military sources predicted that the fall of the Soviet fortress "will probably now be a matter of only a short time."

Other sources said that Sapun Hill, described as the strongest natural obstacle in the whole Sevastopol fortification system, was now entirely in German hands.

(On other Russian sectors, it reported only local activities. It included repulse of a Soviet attack in the Donets Basin and the capture of 1,100 more Red army prisoners on the Volkhov front.)

Soviet riflemen were reported to have beaten off dozens of attacks at Sevastopol by superior forces, wiped out two regiments of German infantry and destroyed 11 tanks.

On the Kursk front north of Kharkov, where Nazi divisions of Field Marshal Gen. Fedor Von Bock are striking eastward, "our troops repulsed large enemy tank attacks with success yesterday" and kept up battle contact through the night, the government information bureau said.

The situation of the Red army men, sailors and marines manning the Black Sea fleet base apparently was the most critical since the German and Rumanian forces surged across the Perekop isthmus to set up siege lines there last Nov. 4.

A series of attacks against Red army positions on the muddy central front was declared officially to have been repelled and a communique said the Germans last nearly 1,500 men killed.

Informed sources said today that Price Administrator Leon Henderson and Secretary of Agriculture Wickard had suggested informally a scheme built around government purchase of farm products and other raw materials which would be resold at a loss to businesses "squeezed" between frozen wholesale and retail prices.

Thus, it was said, a retailer who could not raise his prices to compensate for higher wholesale charges could continue in business without breaking through price ceilings.

The repair of disabled tanks, a vital factor at the moment, was being pressed urgently and mechanics were working day and night to get hundreds of slightly damaged fighting machines back into action.

United States bombers again smashed at Axis forces west of Matruh and Tobruk harbor last night, the RAF announced today.

Throughout the battle area, day and night air attacks on the Axis ground forces are in progress, it stated.

Alexandria was raided last night for the second night in succession and Allied night fighters shot down one enemy bomber into the sea, the RAF said.

The raid on Tobruk started large fires in the harbor area and one enemy supply ship received a direct hit amidships.

British headquarters said the Axis was forced back Sunday when the Allies met "large forces of enemy tanks and vehicles" west of Fuka, which is 45 miles south-east of Matruh.

Again yesterday the Axis forces advanced, a communique said, "and were again engaged in the same area by our forces." It said also that New Zealanders had met enemy armored forces and infantry in another engagement and inflicted heavy casualties in bayonet fighting. Some Axis tanks were destroyed, it said.

Announcement of the raid was made by headquarters of the Hawaiian air force yesterday after all the planes had returned safely.

141,000,000, including $67,000,000 for direct war purposes.

Although lagging nearly $20,000,000 behind spending—a record deficit—taxes set a new high mark, too, exceeding $12,720,000,000. This compared with $7,607,211,852 in the preceding year and a World War I high of $6,694,000,000.

To make up this deficit, the treasury sold $6,000,000,000 of war bonds and about $14,000,000,000 more of regular securities.

This brought the total treasury debt, including guaranteed obligations of government corporations, to a peak of $76,600,000,000.
